

Judicial Case Tracker

This website aggregates publicly available criminal court records and presents case timelines by defendant.

The purpose of this project is transparency and public information — not editorial commentary or allegations of wrongdoing.

What This Site Shows

- Defendant criminal case timelines
- Charges, outcomes, and presiding judges
- Source links to public court records

What This Site Does NOT Do

- Assign blame or intent to judges
- Offer opinions or commentary
- Make legal claims or accusations

Data Sources

All data is sourced from:

- Public court docket systems
- Police press releases
- Reputable news organizations

Each entry includes a direct source link.

Legal Notice

Judicial officers act under statutory authority.

Data is presented for informational purposes only.

License

The source code for this project is licensed under the MIT License.

Court data remains subject to the terms of the original public sources.